UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Lyceum Tabulations--Doug will work with a group Wednesday to tabulate the lyceum groups suggested by the student body.

"Keep on the Grass" signs--Wayne checked with Mr. Vines and the signs are not completed yet. They should be ready to put out on campus by next week.

Friendly Week--The week of May 10 - 14 has been scheduled for Friendly Week. Sara is working on a different idea for each day.
Suggestions were made to have open house one night, a day for Sadie Hawkins, and possibly a powderpuff football game.

Books for Galilee--Gerald is working on the best way to ship the books. They have to be sent to New Orleans first and then Gerald suggested to send them by boat. He will find out the cost of the shipment.

Ticket sales--Sales for the Kenny Rogers and First Edition lyceum are going well. The student body has responded very favorably. Students who have not purchased tickets should soon to be assured a good seat. General admission for students is $250, reserve seats are $3.00.

NEW BUSINESS

Financial Report--David will prepare a financial report for the next meeting so the council can see how much money is left and what projects can be started.

Student Panel--Wayne received a letter from Dean Pryor requesting that the council select a panel of five students to speak at a faculty meeting. They will present an evaluation of Harding from the student viewpoint, giving both strengths and weaknesses in view of the objectives of Harding College. After careful consideration, the council selected five students.

Elections--the elections for S.A. officers for the 1971-72 school year will be Wednesday, April 14. Elections for class representatives will be Wednesday, April 21. Elections will be under the direction of Jeff Woods, elections chairman.

Diet Line--Stevie suggested that the council see about the possibility of having a line of diet foods in the cafeterias. She and Gerald will talk to Mr. Tucker.

The council members are to go back through the minutes from this year and look for projects which have been suggested to do for the remaining part of this semester. The meeting next week will be at 5:30. The council adjourned at 7:15.

Respectfully submitted,

Stevie Green
